

20 Mother Beth installed at Church of the Epiphany in Durham

Bishop Laura Ahrens reads a certificate of installation to Mother Beth Hoffman, right foreground, at her installation service on Tuesday, Oct. 28, at Church of the Epiphany in Durham. In the background are Lynda Beichner and Sam and Judy Frey.

At right, from left, Bob Bartosiak, Rick and Joan Morin, Suzy and Chris Balay; and behind them are Hugh and Julia McCutchen (and others). It was a full house to celebrate the installation of Mother Beth!

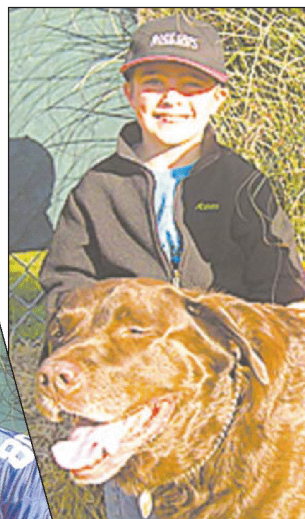

Left, Heather McCutchen leading the youth choir in a song they adapted called "I saw God Today", which names each member of the Epiphany congregation (credits to George Strait).

A reception afterwards was a time to celebrate with delicious refreshments and many friends. At right, Roberta Mather of Durham and Lynda Beichner of Middlefield.

Photos by Judy Moeckel

MiDog costume parade brings out the woofers

Dog park fundraising continues

On Sunday, Oct. 26, a doggy costume contest was held at Peckham Park to raise money for the dog park. There were at least 45 dogs and over 100 people in attendance, and the event generated $664.50 for the park. It was a great day, the weather was superb, and everyone had a blast. Many people got their first taste of what a visit to the dog park will be like, and we were told that for some it was the very first time that they had ever let their dog off-leash.

Organizer Tyler Sibley extends a huge thank you to our distinguished judges: Bruce Villwock and Jay Sibley; and committee members George and Livia Jacobs, Jim and Yvonne Candella, Jan Sibley, Denise Carter, Daria Vanderveer, Brian Clark, Jen Brown, Matt and Katie Tietjen, John and Sue Bradley, Scouts Andrew Carter, Jayson Gribko and Alexander Staddon, and of course, our event chairperson, Ellen Gribko.

Mi-Dog's next event is a doggy swim on Saturday, Nov. 8, from 1-3 p.m. at 31 Powder Hill Road. There is a small charge for admission with all proceeds going toward the construction of the dog park.

Dog costume winners

Dog Costume Winners from the Mi-DOG costume contest held on Oct. 26.

Mark Gribko's Kodi, dressed as super stud and won Top Dog; Mallory Figoras' Rielly dressed as Harry Potter and won Goofiest; Vicki Fetchell's Roxy dressed as a lion and won Most Original; Joe Rahamatullah's Max dressed as a skeleton and won Best dog; Jean Esposito's Murphy dressed as a bumble bee and won Cutest; Lori Rabis' Molly dressed as a skunk and won Most Authentic; Jenny Scheer's Toby and Rosy dressed as two hot dogs and won Funniest; and Bonnie Arcari's Coby dressed as an angel and won Most Adorable.